

Change the World for Kids in 10 Minutes

Can one person cause real change? Gandhi wanted to change the world. Rosa Parks, too. Gandhi refused to leave his seat on a South African train. His acts and life led India to become free from England. Rosa Park's refusal to leave her seat on an Alabama bus ignited the U.S. civil rights movement. The smallest acts done for the right reason can change the world. Are you ready to do 3 small acts for the right reason? Sharing your concern for kids with a few friends could light a flame and might start a bonfire!

Go to Kids Café*. Do 3 small acts in 10 minutes:

- Send an inspiring email to 3 friends with a message about actions that tip the balance toward children - 5 min.
- Give $10 to Americas Children - 40 Years of Loving Kids - 4 min.
- Pray for children - 1 min.

* www.americaschildren.org/kidscafe The coolest people on the planet, use coffee, the Internet, love for kids, and their human and spiritual connections, to change the world for kids.
